BHILWARA "The land of textiles"

Famous as the 'city of textiles and looms', Bhilwara is home to the world renowned Ramdwara of Ramsnehi Sampraday.

Some people say that Bhilwara got its name from the Bhils (tribal people) who lived there during the days of yore. As per a story, the city of Bhilwara had a mint that minted coins known as 'bhilladi'. This is supposedly the origin of the district's name.

Attractions & Places to Visit and Explore in Bhilwara.

Menal Waterfall

80 kilometres from Bhilwara, on the Bhilwara-Kota road is a beautiful waterfall where the water falls to a depth of 150 metres into a V-shaped valley with great force, making for a beautiful sight. People from all corners of the State flock to take it in. The best time to visit the Menal Waterfall is from July to October.

Badnore Fort

Towering over a small hill, this seven-storied fort in Bhilwara is an excellent example of medieval Indian architecture. Located 70 kilometres from Bhilwara on the Bhilwara Asind Road, it offers breath-taking views. One can also visit the many small monuments and temples within the walls of Badnore Fort.

RamDwara Shahpura

55 km from Bhilwara is the town of Shahpura. Surrounded by a wall with four gates, it's a place of pilgrimage for the followers of Ram Sanahi sect founded amongst the Hindu in 1804. The sect has a holy shrine known as Ram Dwara.

Bagore Sahib

Bagore Sahib is a historical gurudwara where Shri Guru Govind Singh Ji stayed on his journey to Punjab. This gurudwara is situated about 20 kilometres from the town of Mandal in the village Bagore of Tehsil Mandal. It has been blessed by the visit of the Tenth Sikh Guru, Shri Guru Gobind Singh Ji.

Phad painting

Phad painting is a style religious scroll painting and folk painting, practiced in Rajasthan state of India. This style of painting is traditionally done on a long piece of cloth or canvas, known as phad. The narratives of the folk deities of Rajasthan, mostly of Pabuji and Devnarayan are depicted on the phads.

Shahpura in Bhilwara district of Rajasthan are widely known as the traditional artists of this folk art-form for the last two centuries.
